

Dublin 11th Nov. 1859

Dear Miss Chapman

I have forwarded all the letters except those to Lady Carlisle who is just now out of town somewhere in the North placing the Vice Regent a deal of semi-royal person amongst the beggs.
I will enclose envelope & keep my them letters. I covered & directed that to S. & A. R. Foster as I wished it to appear as directly & independently from myself. It is to thank them on Richard's behalf & to say how gratified I was by A. R.'s sincere & true healed suspicion of confidence in the uprightness & good intentions of the parties in the late difference. The cause has too few to help it, to be able to afford the life on any grounds of its ancient, faithful & true supporters - so that I earnestly hope there may be a spirit of conciliation on all hands

Yours most truly

Richd D Webb
